More Exhibits at the Museum.

The Philadelphia Commercial Museum has given the Museum a fine collection illustrating the industries and products of Japan and the Philippines, together with 130 large photographs, showing tea and coffee growing in different countries, and many industries of Oriental lands. The exhibit from Japan, which includes various kinds of berries and products made from them, fibres, braids, and shoyu, is placed temporarily in a small case near the entrance door of the building.

The Philadelphia exhibit will be put in place as soon as space has been made for it. Dr. Wilson, the head of the Philadelphia Museum, has shown much interest in the Fairbanks Museum, and takes this practical method of showing his approval.

Owing to the many requests that have come from the children that they might see the alligator feed, his breakfast hour has been changed to 9.15 and all children are invited to see him at that hour.

The following new flowers have been brought to the Museum the past week: Deptford pink, clammy ground cherry, looped, Canada thistle, hemp nettle and black wheat, July 27; common speedwell, sweet elanther's nightshade, catnip, sweet elder, lady's thumb, cut-leaved water hoarhound, broad-leaved arrow-head and cleome, July 29; rabbit's-foot clover, American wild mint, pale touch-me-not, meadow-sweet and Indian pipe, July 30; fruit of red-osier cornel, Canada goldenrod, pearly everlasting, tall flat-top white aster and Joe-Pye weed, July 31; and purple fringed orchis, August 2.

Church Notes.

The Free Baptist church on Main street, which has been closed for several months, as it has been without a pastor, was opened Sunday afternoon for service and Rev. Mr. Higgins from North Danville preached. It is expected that services will be held there regularly for the present on Sunday afternoons at 2.30, and Wednesday evenings at 7.30, and that Rev. Mr. Higgins will conduct the services. A few of the older members of this church have been loath to give up the services permanently, and they are very glad of the opportunity to secure a preacher for the present at least.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Pythian Hall, Sunday morning service 10.45. Subject, "Spirit." The reading room is in the Bank block, corner Main street and Eastern avenue and is open daily except Sunday from 2.30 to 5 p. m., also Tuesday, and Saturday evenings from 7.30 to 9.

Sunday morning at the First Baptist church the subject of the sermon will be "The Golden Vials of Heaven." A union service will be held at the same church in the evening.

The service at St. Andrew's church next Sunday will be at 10.30 a. m. Morning Prayer and Litany. The preacher will be Rev. F. D. Buckley of Waterbury, Conn., who will have charge of the services for the rest of the month.

New England Fat Men's Club.

The midsummer meeting of this notable organization will be held at Portland, Aug. 13 and 14, and a number from St. Johnsbury and vicinity are planning to attend. On Friday evening the club will form a theatre party and visit the theatres.

On Saturday morning a trolley ride will be taken around Portland and at 10 a. m. the party will board a steamer for a ride ending at Long Island, where Mr. Cushing will serve a clam bake.

The speakers will be the Governor of Maine, the mayor of Portland and members of the club.

About 200 applications for membership from Portland and vicinity will be acted upon. The membership of the club is now 1,500 and it is hoped to increase it to 2,000 before the annual meeting in December.

President Taft will be given a special invitation and it is hoped he can come up from Beverly and grace the occasion.
